

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air a documentary that is clearly aimed at changing the election just days before it is a clear example violating campaign regulations. This so-called "documentary" has been paid for by supporters of the Bush-Cheney campaign, and is meant, solely, to smear an American hero.

It is time to stand up against corrupt politics in America. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated BY LAW to serve the public interest. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. They show that YOU need to be more involved in the American community.

Thank you.
